

House Resolution No. 365

Whereas, Robert Sundvold took the lovely hand of his beloved bride, the former Rachel Quien, on December 12, 1953, as the two pledged their troth during solemn ceremonies which were performed in Harrisburg, South Dakota; and

Whereas, fifty years later, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sundvold celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on Sunday, December 14, 2003, at the Country Club of Blue Springs at a reception which was hosted by their children to the delight of their many friends, neighbors, and other well-wishers; and

Whereas, the marriage of Robert and Rachel Sundvold has been blessed down through the years with the presence of four children and their respective spouses, Robert and Denise Sundvold, Prescott and Edie Sundvold, Stuart and Cathy Sundvold, and Jon and Tamara Sundvold; and with twelve grandchildren; and

Whereas, in the lumber business for a quarter century, Robert Sundvold will retire in 2004 after building homes for twenty-five years and will turn his attention to activities at Timothy Lutheran Church and at the Country Club of Blue Springs, while reflecting upon his former leadership as Secretary of the Lumbermen's Association in South Dakota and his past affiliation with the Rotary Club, the Jaycees, and the Booster Club, which he served as President; and

Whereas, a homemaker and bookkeeper for the family business, Rachel Sundvold takes special pride in her past service to the PTA and to PEO Chapter KN, and continues to find fulfillment doing Braille work at Timothy Lutheran Church, participating in the activities of St. Mary's Auxiliary, playing bridge, and holding different offices at the Country Club, where she enjoys golf; and

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long-awaited arrival of the Golden Wedding Anniversary of Robert and Rachel Sundvold and to convey to them this legislative body's heartiest best wishes for many more celebratory events to come in life; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Robert and Rachel Sundvold of Blue Springs, Missouri.
